Website: www.encinitasgardenfestival.org

This all-day celebration of Encinitas' community, gardening, and horticultural heritage features a self-guided walking tour of more than 20 exceptional private gardens in addition to a marketplace of vendors, artists, boutique plant growers, and educational opportunities. Featured on the 2010 tour will be a collection of private greenhouses, the school garden at Paul Ecke Central, a drought resistant garden at the local fire house, and butterfly gardening at the Monarch Program.

The marketplace will offer festival-goers products and information for improving their gardens while also doing their part to preserve the environment. There will be guest speakers throughout the day offering seminars on a variety of garden related topics. The marketplace is free and open to the public. From the marketplace, attendees will set out on foot into the surrounding neighborhood for a self-guided walking tour of our community's featured gardens.

Garden admission tickets purchased in advance cost $21 for adults and $7 for children (10 and under). The event is expected to sell out, but if tickets are still available on festival day, adult tickets will be $25, children tickets will be $10.

Parking is located at the San Dieguito High School Academy parking lot (800 Santa Fe Drive - Encinitas, Ca 92024) where festival participants board double-decker buses for the ride to the Gardeners' Marketplace, located at Orpheus Park on Orpheus Avenue in Encinitas.
