Spring garden tours abound

North County Times

Garden tours are blossoming all over the region. Local garden clubs host tours each spring to raise money for scholarships and club programs. Many sell out in advance, so order tickets early. Below is a guide to upcoming tours in San Diego and Riverside counties:

Encinitas Garden Festival & Tour: View more than 15 private gardens during a self-guided walking tour in a Leucadia neighborhood from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. April 21. Gardens range from small and intimate with cozy artist studios to large and dramatic with sweeping views. Garden styles range from native to tropical. The Gardeners' Marketplace, which is free to visit, serves as the festival hub, with gardening vendors, food vendors, exhibitors and speakers. Guests park at 499 Quail Gardens Drive in Encinitas. Double-decker buses transport guests to the marketplace beginning at 9:45 a.m. Advance tour admission is $21 for adults and $7 for children 10 and under. Visit encinitasgardenfestival.org or call 760-753-8615.
